Jen Ko's practice focuses on high-stakes complex commercial litigation and white collar defense. Before joining Larson LLP, she served as a law clerk for the Honorable Sheri Pym of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. Through her clerkship, Jen worked on a variety of civil matters, including dispositive motions and discovery disputes, and assisted with pretrial criminal matters.

Jen graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School, where she was a Littleton Fellow and taught first-year students legal analysis, writing, and oral advocacy. She also served as an editor for the University of Pennsylvania Law Review and The Regulatory Review. During law school, Jen externed at the Sierra Club and the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, and she represented low-income clients as a student attorney in Penn's Civil Practice Clinic. In her spare time, Jen enjoys rock climbing and exploring national parks.
