OFFICE Los Angeles

Alix Zelener's practice focuses on complex civil litigation and white collar defense matters.

As a law student, Alix was a summer associate at a boutique civil litigation firm in Chicago. While there, she wrote a petition for leave to appeal to the Illinois Supreme Court for the plaintiff in Doe v. Hastert against the former Speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives. Alix also worked as a legal intern at NBCUniversal.

Alix graduated from Northwestern Pritzker School of Law, where she served as vice president of programming for the Arts and Entertainment Law Society and a notes editor for Northwestern's Journal of Technology and Intellectual Property. As an undergraduate, she was a broadcast journalist for an Emmy Award-winning college news station. In her free time, Alix enjoys cooking, hiking, and watching Chicago sports.
