OFFICE Los Angeles

Ashley Henning's practice focuses on complex civil litigation and white collar defense.

Her experience includes participating in all aspects of the litigation process from drafting responsive pleadings, conducting discovery, advocating for her clients through written motions and oral arguments, and preparing cases for mediation and trial. Prior to joining Larson, Ashley worked as an associate at a national defense litigation firm where she handled an extensive variety of litigation matters, conducted depositions, and won a motion for summary judgment.

Ashley is a member of the Order of the Coif and graduated magna cum laude from the University of California College of the Law, San Francisco. Prior to law school, Ashley graduated cum laude from Chapman University with two Bachelor's Degrees in English Rhetoric & Writing and in Religious Studies where she honed her expertise in persuasive writing and reading comprehension to study intricate texts and historical material.

When she is not working, Ashley enjoys reading horseback riding, reading, camping, and trying new restaurants around Los Angeles.
