

International Arbitration

When it comes to success in the courtroom and in arbitration, Larson is a global force.

Our attorneys have prevailed in international arbitrations arising from cross-border disputes related to oil and mineral rights, taxation, entertainment deals, real estate, intellectual property, and complex contractual issues.

We represent sovereigns, businesses, and individuals throughout the international arbitration process, including by litigating claims, negotiating resolutions, enforcing and collecting awards, and serving as expert witnesses.

In addition to representing clients before international tribunals, Larson has been appointed arbitrator in international matters. Our attorneys have served on the panel of neutrals for and represented clients before leading international arbitration institutions, including the American Arbitration Association (AAA), the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, and the World Intellectual Property Organization. Our extensive experience as arbitrators gives Larson a substantial edge in representing clients before international tribunals.
