OFFICE Los Angeles

Kameron St Clare has experience across a broad range of complex civil and criminal matters, with a background that includes two federal judicial clerkships in California and Texas.

He served as a law clerk to Senior U.S. District Judge William B. Shubb of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California, as well as to U.S. Magistrate Judge Ignacio Torteya, III of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas.

As a clerk, he worked on a substantial federal civil and criminal docket, conducting legal research and drafting orders involving the First Amendment and other constitutional claims, administrative law, contracts, securities and derivatives, class actions, employment matters, product liability disputes, and other complex issues.

While in law school, he served as a judicial intern to U.S. Magistrate Judge Regina D. Cannon of the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Georgia and Judge Kimberly M. Esmond Adams of the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia. He also contributed to multiple amicus briefs as part of the Emory Law School Supreme Court Advocacy Program.
