OFFICE Los Angeles

Mark Kanow focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation and white collar defense.

He has represented clients in federal and state courts and at the trial and appellate levels.

Before joining Larson, Mark served as a law clerk for the Honorable Stanley Blumenfeld Jr. in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. He previously served as a shared clerk in the Central District, assisting approximately 10 judges with trials and dispositive motions. In his clerkships, Mark sharpened his writing skills and gained a deep understanding of court operations.

Mark graduated cum laude from the Pepperdine Caruso School of Law and is a member of the Order of the Coif. During law school, he was an Associate Editor for the Pepperdine Law Review and served as a research assistant to Professor Babette Boliek, former Chief Economist of the Federal Communications Commission. In his spare time, Mark enjoys watching Angels baseball and is an avid fisherman.
