OFFICE Los Angeles, Washington, D.C.

Recognized by clients and colleagues as a “legal innovator” and “outstanding first-chair trial lawyer,” Robert (“Bob”) Ruyak is one of the nation’s most experienced and respected litigators and trial advocates.

For four decades, he has served as lead and first-chair trial counsel in dozens of complex, high-stakes cases.

Notable Experience and Results

Bob focuses substantively and procedurally on the protection and enhancement of his clients’ competitive interests. His competition litigation practice covers antitrust monopolies, anticompetitive agreements, and restraints; patent enforcement and infringement defense; trade secret and business theft; fraudulent, unfair and deceptive practices; copyright and trademark infringement; and false advertising. He represents both plaintiffs and defendants in class action, insurance recovery, shareholder, and contract disputes.

In his diverse litigation practice, Bob also represents individuals and corporations in civil and criminal investigations and cases initiated by the U.S. Department of Justice, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Department of Agriculture, the Internal Revenue Service, and various State Attorney General offices.

With extensive experience in alternative dispute resolution, Bob has served as lead counsel in arbitrations in the U.S., Bermuda, and the U.K. He spent over a decade on the board of the International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution, including as chairman of its International Committee.

Professional Impact

Bob’s contributions to the legal profession extend far beyond his litigation practice. A former law firm managing and co-founding partner, Bob is known for promoting innovations in law practice management and young attorney training, skills development, and career management. Such innovations extend to continuing legal education and trial techniques—including trial strategy, use of experts, and presentation technologies. Bob is also a founder and has served on the board of the Catholic Charities Pro Bono Legal Network.
