

Trusts, Probate, and Estate Litigation

Combining unparalleled litigation experience with a comprehensive understanding of trust and estate law, Larson successfully prosecutes and defends our clients' interests in trust, probate, and estate matters in both court and arbitration.

We represent estate beneficiaries and fiduciaries who are primarily high-net-worth individuals. Heirs, entrepreneurs, and conservators, and their families look to us to protect their personal and financial concerns.

Our experience includes litigating complex disputes involving claims for breach of fiduciary duties, beneficiary disputes, family and estate management disputes, contested heirship, charitable pledge disputes, wrongful death recovery, and fraud. While we aim to swiftly resolve claims before litigation arises, we are always prepared to go to trial to protect or recover our clients' assets.
